HE STOLE THE CHECK.

W. C. V. Johnston, of Rankin, Convicted of Stealing His Own Trunk.

JUDGE EWING'S PECULIAR CHARGE.

George Owrey Was Released Because of Leon Long's Mistake.

YESTERDAY IN THE COUNTY COURTS

In the Criminal Court yesterday W. C. V. Johnston was tried on a charge of larceny. The case was an odd one, and raised a peculiar point. He shipped a trunk full of clothing from Braddock to Rankin station. When the trunk arrived it was placed on the platform, and in the absence of an agent Johnston, it was charged, had the trunk hauled away. He then claimed that it had been lost by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company and put in a bill for $200. The company was about to pay the claim when their officer, R. E. Shephard, discovered that Johnston had the trunk. An information for the larceny of the trunk was then made against Johnston.

In charging the jury Judge Ewing said that it was a peculiar question. The trunk belonged to Johnston, but they might find him guilty of stealing the check. He cautioned them to take into consideration what Johnston's intentions were when he took the trunk. If he did not then intend to defraud the company, and his claim was an afterthought, he could not be convicted of larceny. He referred to an old English case of a similar nature. One man owed another man a shilling. He went to pay him and gave him a guinea in mistake. The receiver of the coin knew he was getting more than he was entitled to, though he had an interest in the amount, and kept the money. He was sued for larceny and the case referred to learned judges. Three took one view and three another. In the present case Judge Ewing left the decision for the jury. The jury, however, was not hindered by a legal technicality, and in a short time returned a verdict of "guilty as indicted."

Indictments Made by the Grand Jury.

The grand jury yesterday returned the following true bills: Bridget Bulger, Sarah Mallett, John Fuel, George Hartner, Oliver Peoples, D. Bumbaugh, John Swan, Maggie Swan, Owen Keenan, Thomas Paisley, Ross Rourison, Hannah Shurmar, aggravated assault and battery; A. B. Ball, nuisance; Joseph Bennett, keeping a gambling house; Peter Barber, barratry; John Drew, William Long, receiving stolen goods; J. A. Gasney, John Laughran, attempted rape; Amelia Jones, keeping a disorderly house, Dudley Malia, larceny by bailee; W. J. McNorton, embezzlement.

How George Owrey Got Free.

George B. Owrey, who was convicted Wednesday of bigamy and released from jail the same evening by mistake, was returned to jail yesterday. Owrey's release had been caused by a clerical error made by Clerk Long, of the Criminal Court. He had glanced at the wrong papers, and made out a release for Owrey instead of a commitment. Owrey was found in Platt's saloon and remanded to jail until Saturday.

STATING TIME AND INTEREST.

The Ordinance for a Vote on Increasing the City Indebtedness to Be Amended—Members Agree to Support Controller Morrow's Plan.

Controller Morrow's amendment to the ordinance for a vote on increased city debt will be adopted. At the last meeting of Councils the ordinance was referred back to the Finance Committee to correct some errors in wording. A meeting of the committee was called for yesterday afternoon, but lacked one of a quorum. No official action could be taken, but there was a general discussion on the idea of the Controller to insert in the bill a clause designating the time and percentage on the bonds proposed to be issued.

Chairman Magee and Committeeman Keating both opposed the plan at first. They claimed that these details were unnecessary at the time, and could be provided for by ordinance after the people had voted on the main question of issuing the bonds. Controller Morrow agreed that they would have to be embodied in an ordinance after the vote, but also held that they should be inserted in the original bill so that the people would know just exactly what they are to vote for. After considerable discussion all the members present agreed to support the amendment, and when the committee secures a quorum there is little doubt of its passage. The amended portion of the ordinance will then read as follows:

"That the question of increasing the bonded indebtedness of said city of Pittsburg to an amount not exceeding $2,000,000 by the issue of bonds bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 5 per cent per annum and maturing in not exceeding 10 years from the date of the issue thereof in 1892, and to the redemption of which at maturity so much of the moneys as may be necessary, collected under the so-called curative legislation, shall be pledged, shall be submitted to the electors thereof at a special election to be held on the 8th day of December, A. D. 1891, in the manner and upon the terms provided and prescribed in an act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities, to provide for the redemption of the same, and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof," approved the 20th day of April, A. D. 1874, and the various supplements thereto."

After the meeting the Controller said: "The clause relating to money collected under curative legislation will enable me to deduct from the $2,000,000 worth of bonds all the money that will have been collected under the curative acts at the time the bond issue is made. For instance, if $500,000 will have been collected under the curative acts by the time the bonds are ready to issue I will only issue $1,500,000 of the bonds, and the indebtedness will only be increased that much."
